NEW PROGRAMS & HIGHLIGHTS

Colombian-Caribbean Rhythms and Culture

Cumbia, Mapalé, La Puya and Bullerengue come alive through body percussion. No instruments required! Just rhythm and movement. Students discover the cultural influences behind each style while exploring the sounds their own bodies can make, straight from Colombia's northern Caribbean coast.

Sound of Multicultural Australia Trio

This trio blends ancient melodies with African rhythms to create a sound found only in Australia. Uygu, a world-renowned musician; Yaw, a Ghanaian elder-percussionist; and Richard bring their cultures together, sharing their heritage through engaging performances and collaborative musical exchange.

Paris in Song: A French Music & Culture Experience

Live French chanson brings the charm of Paris into the classroom, no prior language experience required. Students pick up basic pronunciation through interactive activities and an optional sing-along, discovering French culture and storytelling through performance.

Carribean Soul

From laidback melodies to exciting dance beats, this program introduces students to the musical sounds of the Caribbean and to soca, calypso and reggae music played on their national instrument; the steel drums.

CULTURAL INFUSION
Foundation

SUPPORT CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN AUSTRALIA AND BEYOND

When your school partners with Cultural Infusion, you help strengthen the cultural diversity that keeps communities connected, resilient, and thriving.

Through Fundraising Days and program bookings, your school supports the Cultural Infusion Foundation's key initiatives:

- Training and professional development for cultural presenters
- Equal Access Programs for regional, remote, and under-resourced schools
- Community and youth programs that build identity and belonging
- The Living Culture Program in Pakistan and Tanzania
- Research and innovation in intercultural education and wellbeing
- International advocacy through UNESCO and global cultural networks

EVEN SMALL CONTRIBUTIONS MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE.

As little as $500 a month can sustain a full-time teacher in our Living Culture Program overseas.

Every school booking already contributes to this work. A Fundraising Day, donation, or even a small student-led initiative can help preserve culture and expand access for communities worldwide.

YOUR SCHOOL CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Cultural Infusion was founded on a simple belief: when culture is shared, communities grow stronger. Our founder and CEO experienced this firsthand. Support he received as a young artist in the 1980s shaped his lifelong commitment to celebrating humanity's shared cultural heritage — a commitment carried forward today through the Cultural Infusion Foundation.

Your school can make a difference. By hosting a Fundraising Day, donating directly, or running any school-based initiative, you help the Foundation to:

- Help preserve cultural traditions at risk of disappearing.
- Support children and communities locally and globally.
- Create opportunities for cultural presenters and knowledge-holders.
- Reinforce values of inclusion, empathy, and intercultural understanding among students.

Whether it's a whole-school fundraiser, a classroom collection, or a themed cultural celebration, every contribution helps sustain the cultural knowledge that connects communities worldwide.

Be a champion for cultural diversity.
