TESTIMONIALS

Professional Development: Embedding Aboriginal Perspectives in the Classroom

The entire team thoroughly enjoyed the delivery approach and Aunty Gabby's ability to be raw and honest. From the start of the booking process until the completion of the PD, the team were very approachable, supportive and showed genuine care and passion towards providing a meaningful experience. We wish we could do face to face!

Arcadia College, Robina

Aboriginal Infusion

Nathan clearly cares deeply about sharing the rich history of the land. It was wonderful to be part of his presentation and to hear from him directly. Can't recommend him highly enough.
Everything was great, right from the administration and getting connected through to the presentation. We are so thankful and it was such a great experience.

Living Faith Early Learning Centre, Petrie

Bollywood Infusion

The presenter is professional, and the program engages all children. This was an excellent channel for children in Australia to learn about the different cultures.

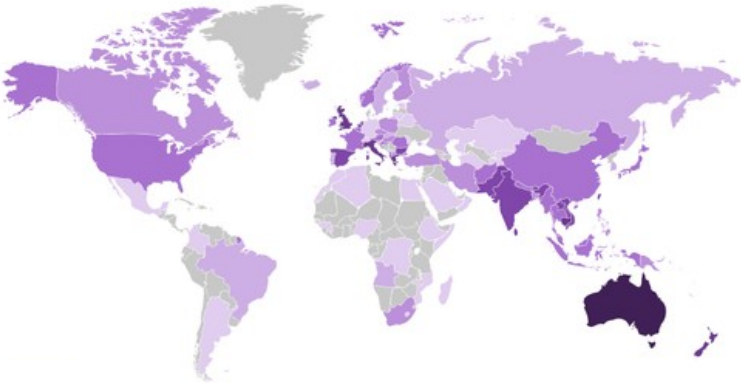

Prince of Peace Lutheran Primary School, Everton Hills

CULTURAL INFUSION
Foundation

SUPPORT CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN AUSTRALIA AND BEYOND

When your school partners with Cultural Infusion, you help strengthen the cultural diversity that keeps communities connected, resilient, and thriving.

Through Fundraising Days and program bookings, your school supports the Cultural Infusion Foundation's key initiatives:

- Training and professional development for cultural presenters
- Equal Access Programs for regional, remote, and under-resourced schools
- Community and youth programs that build identity and belonging
- The Living Culture Program in Pakistan and Tanzania
- Research and innovation in intercultural education and wellbeing
- International advocacy through UNESCO and global cultural networks

EVEN SMALL CONTRIBUTIONS MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE.

As little as $500 a month can sustain a full-time teacher in our Living Culture Program overseas.

Every school booking already contributes to this work. A Fundraising Day, donation, or even a small student-led initiative can help preserve culture and expand access for communities worldwide.

YOUR SCHOOL CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

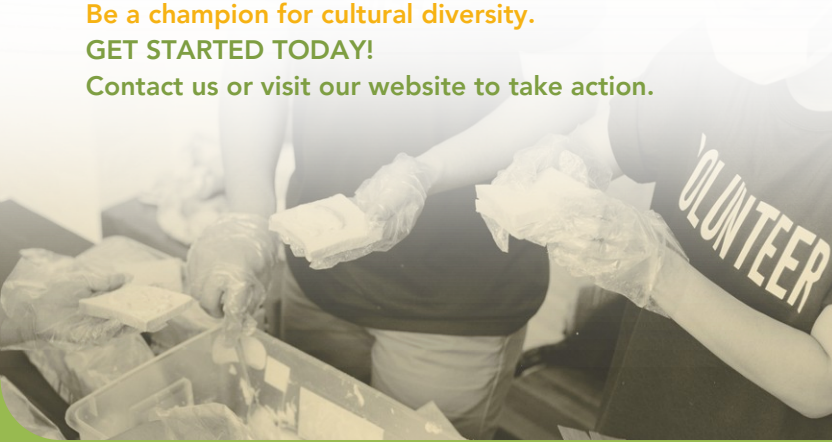

Cultural Infusion was founded on a simple belief: when culture is shared, communities grow stronger. Our founder and CEO experienced this firsthand. Support he received as a young artist in the 1980s shaped his lifelong commitment to celebrating humanity's shared cultural heritage — a commitment carried forward today through the Cultural Infusion Foundation.

Your school can make a difference. By hosting a Fundraising Day, donating directly, or running any school-based initiative, you help the Foundation to:

- Help preserve cultural traditions at risk of disappearing.
- Support children and communities locally and globally.
- Create opportunities for cultural presenters and knowledge-holders.
- Reinforce values of inclusion, empathy, and intercultural understanding among students.

Whether it's a whole-school fundraiser, a classroom collection, or a themed cultural celebration, every contribution helps sustain the cultural knowledge that connects communities worldwide.

Be a champion for cultural diversity.
