TESTIMONIALS

Rhythms and Instruments of West Africa

Catered for each student, every student was engaged. Plenty of drums for all students to be involved. Each student got time in both the small and large drums. A wonderful experience for our learners.

Vale Park Primary School, Vale Park, SA

Bollywood Infusion

It was a great look into the Indian culture. We teamed in with an Indian Cuisine Cooking Experience.

West Lakes Shore School R-7, West Lakes Shore, SA

Multicultural All Day Program

The students enjoyed navigating around the different experiences and the short sharp nature of the 25 minute sessions worked well. The programs that received the most praise was our African drumming as it was soo interactive and the indigenous infusion presenter held the students attention. Students also enjoyed the Polynesian infusion particularly more on the 2nd week of the program with our older kids as it was more interactive and included the Hakka.

YOUR SCHOOL CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

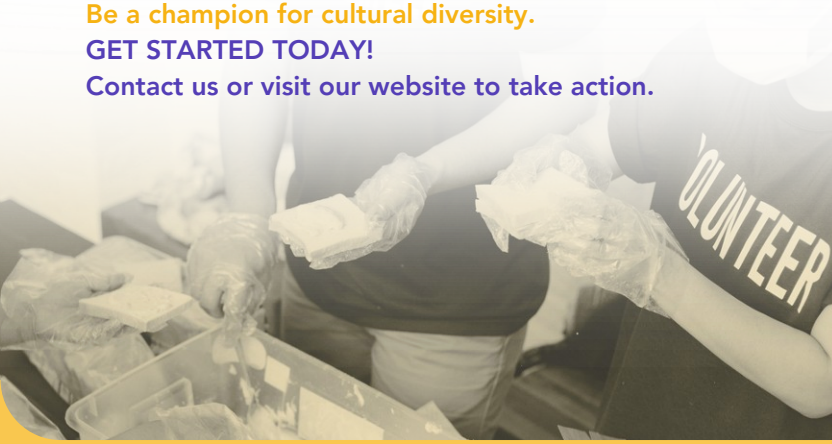

Cultural Infusion was founded on a simple belief: when culture is shared, communities grow stronger. Our founder and CEO experienced this firsthand. Support he received as a young artist in the 1980s shaped his lifelong commitment to celebrating humanity's shared cultural heritage — a commitment carried forward today through the Cultural Infusion Foundation.

Your school can make a difference. By hosting a Fundraising Day, donating directly, or running any school-based initiative, you help the Foundation to:

- Help preserve cultural traditions at risk of disappearing.
- Support children and communities locally and globally.
- Create opportunities for cultural presenters and knowledge-holders.
- Reinforce values of inclusion, empathy, and intercultural understanding among students.

Whether it's a whole-school fundraiser, a classroom collection, or a themed cultural celebration, every contribution helps sustain the cultural knowledge that connects communities worldwide.

Be a champion for cultural diversity.
