TESTIMONIALS

Indonesian Performance

The 20-minute Indonesian dance performance perfectly complimented our Harmony Week celebrations. Three lovely ladies arrived punctually and delivered a dazzling performance to all students from Pre-Primary to Year 6 at the school assembly. The children were entranced by the vibrant costumes, flowing scarves and masks utilised during the dances.

Kinross Primary School, Kinross

Taiko Drumming

The PowerPoint on Okinawa as the home of karate was interesting and relevant, with Japanese and Okinawan language introduced at just the right level. The performances were highly polished, the costumes were intricate and visually stunning. The combination of dance, music and drumming was breathtaking. The interactive drumming session at the end was a highlight, for teachers as much as students.

Yokine Primary School, Yokine

Rhythms and Instruments of West Africa

The workshop was very engaging. George the presenter was excellent. Our students have a range of special needs and George made the whole workshop very inclusive. Each student was able to participate in a way the suited their needs. An excellent workshop. Highly recommend it!

CULTURAL INFUSION
Foundation

SUPPORT CULTURAL DIVERSITY IN AUSTRALIA AND BEYOND

When your school partners with Cultural Infusion, you help strengthen the cultural diversity that keeps communities connected, resilient, and thriving.

Through Fundraising Days and program bookings, your school supports the Cultural Infusion Foundation's key initiatives:

- Training and professional development for cultural presenters
- Equal Access Programs for regional, remote, and under-resourced schools
- Community and youth programs that build identity and belonging
- The Living Culture Program in Pakistan and Tanzania
- Research and innovation in intercultural education and wellbeing
- International advocacy through UNESCO and global cultural networks

EVEN SMALL CONTRIBUTIONS MAKE A REAL DIFFERENCE.

As little as $500 a month can sustain a full-time teacher in our Living Culture Program overseas.

Every school booking already contributes to this work. A Fundraising Day, donation, or even a small student-led initiative can help preserve culture and expand access for communities worldwide.

YOUR SCHOOL CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

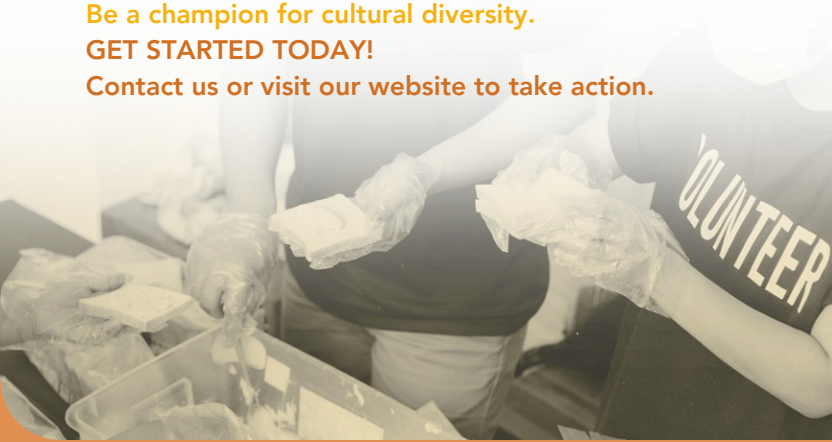

Cultural Infusion was founded on a simple belief: when culture is shared, communities grow stronger. Our founder and CEO experienced this firsthand. Support he received as a young artist in the 1980s shaped his lifelong commitment to celebrating humanity's shared cultural heritage — a commitment carried forward today through the Cultural Infusion Foundation.

Your school can make a difference. By hosting a Fundraising Day, donating directly, or running any school-based initiative, you help the Foundation to:

- Help preserve cultural traditions at risk of disappearing.
- Support children and communities locally and globally.
- Create opportunities for cultural presenters and knowledge-holders.
- Reinforce values of inclusion, empathy, and intercultural understanding among students.

Whether it's a whole-school fundraiser, a classroom collection, or a themed cultural celebration, every contribution helps sustain the cultural knowledge that connects communities worldwide.

Be a champion for cultural diversity.
